

LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

To the Permanent Court of International Justice.

In execution of the Resolution of the Council adopted on May 12th, 1922, of which a certified true copy is annexed hereto, and by virtue of the authorisation given by this Resolution,

The Secretary-General of the League of Nations has the honour to present to the Permanent Court of International Justice the request of the Council that the Court will, in accordance with Article 14 of the Covenant of the League, give an advisory opinion upon the following question :

“Does the competence of the International Labour Organisation extend to international regulation of the conditions of labour of persons employed in agriculture?”

The Memorandum prepared by the International Labour Bureau, as attached to the present request, contains the observations on the subject presented by the Director of this Bureau at the Council's request.

Secretary-General of the League of Nations.

Geneva, May 22nd, 1922.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

Resolution adopted by the Council, May 12th, 1922.

The Council of the League of Nations, in conformity with Article 14 of the Covenant, requests the Permanent Court of International Justice to give the Council an advisory opinion upon the following question :

Does the competence of the International Labour Organisation extend to international regulation of the conditions of labour of persons employed in agriculture ?

The Council authorises the Secretary-General to present the present request to the Court, together with the documents concerning the matter, to give all necessary assistance for the conduct of the case, and to arrange to be represented before the Court if necessary.

The International Labour Office is requested by the Council to afford the Court all the assistance which it may require in the consideration of the question hereby submitted to it.

Certified true copy,
